Companies Make Large Donation to the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museums' B-17 Restoration Project

Pooler, Ga. –The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum has received two large donations to assist in the B-17 “City of Savannah” restoration project. International Aero Services will be donating their renowned services to polish the fuselage of the World War II bomber; and N.E.S. Rentals of Pooler, who will be donating the use of their machinery. The companies will be shining the B-17 inside the Museum’s Combat Gallery on May 27th and 28th.

Steve Ward of International Aero Services and Andy Sharpton of N.E.S. Rentals are donating many thousands of dollars worth of services to the Museum’s B-17 restoration project. The Museum’s B-17 “City of Savannah” is on display in the Combat Gallery while it is undergoing a complete restoration. These are huge contributions toward the restoration project.

Activated in 1942 in Savannah, GA the Eighth Air Force was a critical strike element in World War II and remains an active force today. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum honors the Mighty Eighth’s proud legacy by preserving the stories of courage, character and patriotism displayed by the men and women of the Eighth Air Force from World War II to present.

Just minutes from Historic Savannah the Museum is located at 175 Bourne Avenue in Pooler, right off of I-95 at Exit 102. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum is open daily from 9 AM until 5 PM except on New Year’s Day, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas.
