Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum holds Christmas on the Home Front

Pooler, GA – On Saturday, December 5, 2009 from 10 am to 4 pm the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum will be holding Christmas on the Home Front. Christmas on the Home Front is fun educational hands on activities about the holiday season by focusing on the way families and military troops celebrated Christmas during World War II. These home front activities are FREE & great for ages 3 to 13.

Appointments are also available for any group, please call Heather Thies, Education Director at 912-748-8888 ext 106 or e-mail her at education@mightyeighth.org for more information.

Activated in 1942 in Savannah, GA the Eighth Air Force was a critical strike element in World War II and remains an active force today. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum is one of the world's most powerful Museum experiences as it honors the Mighty Eighth's proud legacy by preserving the stories of courage, character and patriotism displayed by the men and women of the Eighth Air Force from World War II to present.

Just minutes from Historic Savannah the Museum is located at 175 Bourne Avenue in Pooler, right off of I-95 at Exit 102. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum is open daily from 9 AM until 5 PM except on New Year's Day, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas. For more information, please visit www.mightyeighth.org or call 912-748-8888.
